What Does It Do?

Honeywell Forge enables you to use connected software to bring together assets, processes, and people to improve operational performance and achieve your most critical operational objectives.

What Is Included?

Honeywell Forge is powerful, flexible, and easy to use. Whether you're operating one business aircraft or a whole fleet, you can use the intuitive Honeywell Forge dashboard to manage nearly every aspect of your business aviation operation.

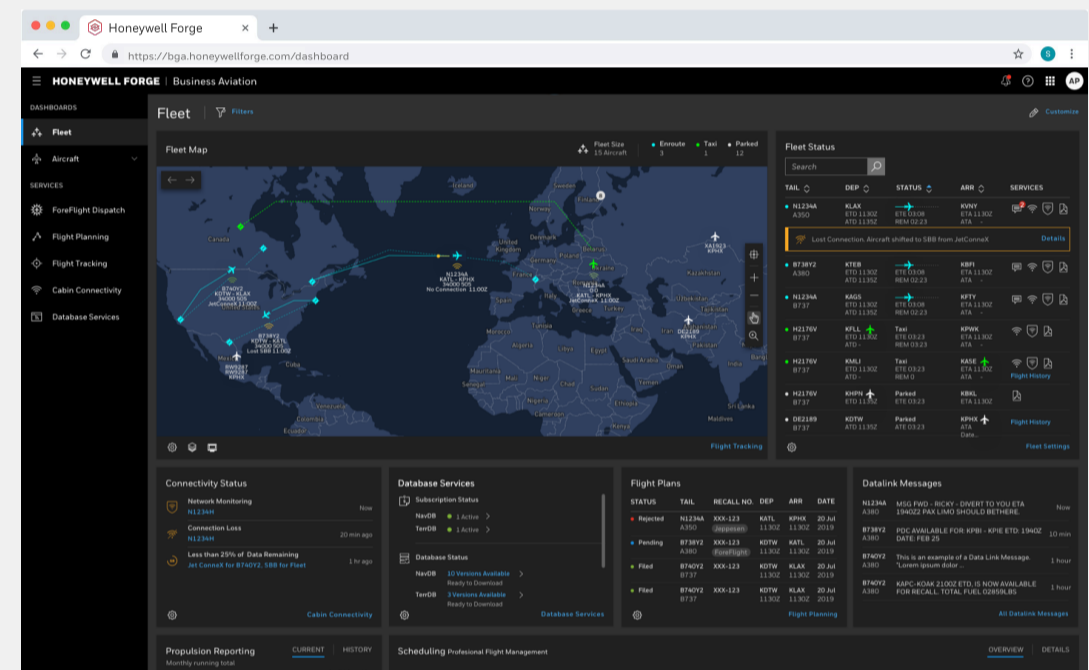

Who Has Access?

Anyone who is a customer of our Honeywell Forge service, whether it's flight planning, connectivity airtime, navigation databases, or datalink, will have access to the platform.

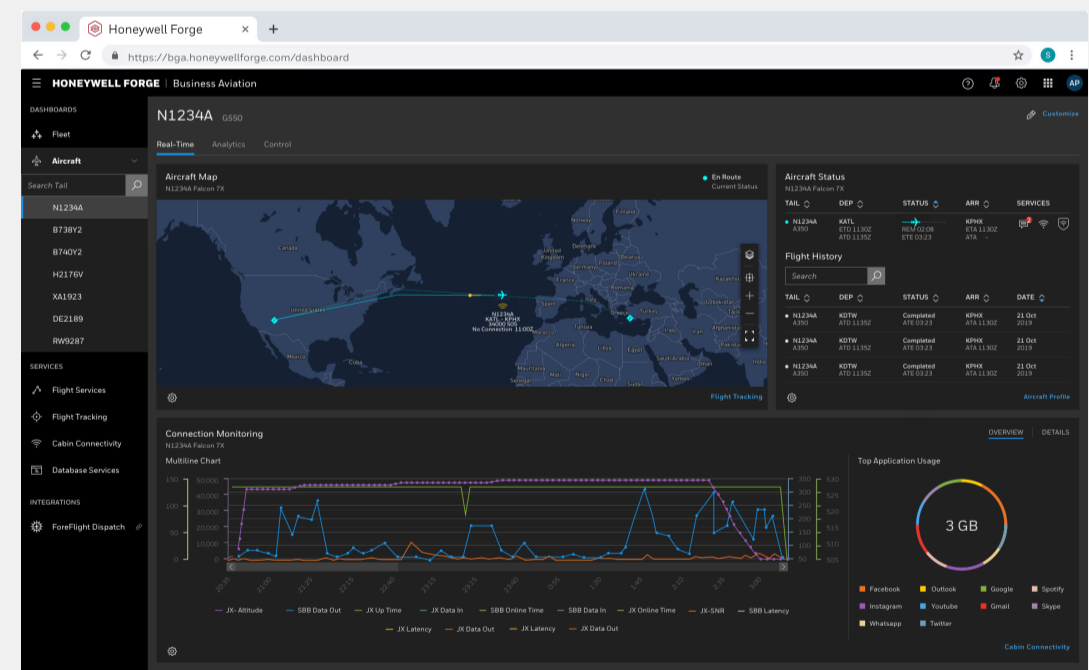

Why Do I Need to Request Access for each Service?

Honeywell takes customer privacy and security very seriously. We require customers to request access for each of their subscriptions to comply with privacy policies and request permission to pull data into Honeywell Forge.
