A. A change order is a written order signed by Customer and Honeywell authorizing a change to an Order or agreement, including but not limited to scope changes, adjustments in Price, and/or a change to the schedule.

B. Customer may request Honeywell to submit proposals for changes in the scope, schedule or other elements of an Order or agreement subject to written acceptance by Honeywell. Honeywell will inform Customer if the change causes a price modification or a schedule adjustment. If Customer chooses to proceed, the change will be effective, and Honeywell may begin performance upon the Parties' authorized signature of the change order. Unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by both Parties, if Honeywell submits a proposal pursuant to such request but Customer chooses not to proceed, Customer shall issue a change order to reimburse Honeywell for any and all costs incurred in preparing the proposal.

Any recommendation or assistance provided by Honeywell concerning the use, design, application, or operation of a Product shall not be construed as representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, and such information is accepted by Customer at Customer's own risk and without any obligation or liability to Honeywell. It is the Customer's sole responsibility to determine the suitability of a Product for use in Customer's application(s). The failure by Honeywell to make recommendations or provide assistance shall not give rise to any liability for Honeywell.

D. PRODUCT WARRANTY

"Nonconformance" means failure to operate due to defects in workmanship or material. Normal wear and tear and the need for regular overhaul and periodic maintenance do not constitute a Nonconformance.

Products that are normally consumed in operation or which have a normal life inherently shorter than the foregoing warranty period including, but not limited to, consumables (e.g., flashtubes, lamps, batteries, storage capacitors, filters, membranes) are not covered under this warranty. Underwater locating devices (ULDs) are not manufactured by Honeywell or covered by this warranty; however, ULDs may be subject to separate warranties as may be provided by the ULD manufacturer.

Products quoted and sold in New, New Surplus, Overhauled or Serviceable condition are warranted for the periods listed in the "Provisions by Condition" section of these Conditions of Sales, except for electromechanical and hydro mechanical devices which are only warranted for six (6) months from date of shipment. Honeywell warrants that Product sold as New, New Surplus, Overhauled or Serviceable will be accompanied by a certificate of airworthiness; an FAA8130-3 and/or EASA Form 1 (or CAAC if requested).

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Honeywell provides no warranty for Products quoted and sold in "As is/As Removed" or "Repairable" condition. This Article 10 does not apply to "As is/As Removed" or "Repairable" Products.

Products sold or repaired by a third-party repair station are warranted for the periods as offered in quotation, not exceeding 6 (six) months from the date of shipment.

Customer must notify Honeywell in writing during the warranty period of a Nonconformance and, within thirty (30) calendar days of discovery of the Nonconformance, disposition the Product in accordance with Honeywell's written instructions. Honeywell's obligation and Customer's sole remedy under this warranty is repair or replacement, at Honeywell’s election, of any Product Nonconformance. All Products repaired or replaced are warranted only for the unexpired portion of the original warranty period.

Honeywell assumes round trip shipping costs for nonconforming Products in an amount not to exceed actual reasonable direct freight charges to and from Honeywell’s nearest warranty repair facility for such Products. Customer will provide copies of freight invoices to Honeywell upon request. Round trip shipping costs expressly exclude freight forwarding charges, taxes, duties, and tariffs. The party initiating shipment bears the risk of loss or damage to Products in transit. If Honeywell reasonably determines that a Nonconformance does not exist, then Customer will pay all expenses related to the improper return including, but not limited to, analysis and shipping charges.

Honeywell will not be liable under this warranty if the Product has been exposed or subjected to any: (1) maintenance, repair, installation, handling, packaging, transportation, storage, operation or use that is improper or otherwise not in compliance with Honeywell’s instruction; (2) alteration, modification or repair by anyone other than Honeywell or those specifically authorized by Honeywell; (3) accident, contamination, corrosion, foreign object damage, abuse, neglect or negligence after shipment to Customer; (4) damage caused by failure of a Honeywell-supplied product not under warranty or by any hardware or software not supplied by Honeywell; or (5) use of counterfeit or replacement parts that are neither manufactured nor approved by Honeywell for use in Honeywell-manufactured Products. Honeywell has no obligation under this warranty unless Customer maintains records that accurately document operating time, maintenance performed and the nature of the unsatisfactory condition of Honeywell’s Product. Upon Honeywell’s request, Customer will give Honeywell access to these records for substantiating warranty claims.

13. EXCUSABLE DELAY OR NONPERFORMANCE

A. Force Majeure. Except for payment obligations, neither party will be liable to the other for any failure to meet its obligations due to any force majeure event. Notwithstanding the prior sentence, quantities affected by this Force Majeure clause may, at the option of Honeywell, be eliminated from these Conditions of Sale without liability, but these Conditions of Sale will otherwise remain unaffected. Force majeure is an event beyond the reasonable control of the non-performing party and includes, without limitation:

1. Delays or refusals to grant an export license or the suspension or revocation thereof,
2. Any other acts of any government that would limit a party’s ability to perform under these Conditions of Sale,
3. Fires, earthquakes, floods, tropical storms, hurricanes, tornadoes, severe weather conditions, or any other acts of God,
4. Pandemics, epidemics, quarantines, or regional medical crises,
5. The presence of Hazardous Substances of Mold,

7. Labor strikes or lockouts,
8. Riots, strife, insurrection, civil disobedience, landowner disturbances, armed conflict, terrorism, or war, declared or not (or impending threat of any of the foregoing, if such threat might reasonably be expected to cause injury to people or property),
9. Inability or refusal by Customer's directed third-party suppliers to provide Honeywell parts, services, manuals, or other information necessary to the products or services to be provided by Honeywell under these Conditions of Sale, or

10. Any other cause beyond the non-performing party's reasonable control.

If a force majeure event causes a delay, then the date of performance will be extended by the period of time that the non-performing party is actually delayed, or for any other period as the parties may agree in writing.

When performance is excused, Honeywell may allocate its services or its supplies of materials and products in any manner that is fair and reasonable. However, Honeywell will not be obligated to obtain services, materials or products from other sources or to allocate materials obtained by Honeywell from third parties for Honeywell's internal use.

Should any part of the system or any equipment in each case that are related to the work be damaged by fire, water, lightning, acts of God, the presence of Hazardous Substances or Mold, third parties, or any other cause beyond the control of Honeywell, any repairs or replacement shall be paid for by Customer.

For the avoidance of doubt, there need not be a Force Majeure event to invoke Section 25 (Surcharges). In the event that a Force Majeure event is ongoing for a period of time which is ninety (90) days or longer, Honeywell may provide notice to Customer that it is cancelling any affected outstanding Customer Orders or affected portion thereof.

B. COVID-19. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions of Sale, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of which cannot be foreseen, the Parties agree that Honeywell shall be entitled to an equitable extension of time to deliver or perform its work and appropriate additional compensation to the extent Honeywell's delivery or performance, or the delivery or performance of its suppliers and/or subcontractors, is in any way delayed, hindered or otherwise affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

14. TERMINATION

All Confidential Information provided in connection with these Conditions of Sale shall remain the property of Honeywell, shall be used only for the purpose of furthering the matters contemplated by Purchase Orders governed by these Conditions of Sale and not for any other purpose whatsoever, and shall be protected as confidential by Customer using the same degree of care as it uses to protect its own confidential information of a similar type, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, for a period of ten (10) years following the expiration or termination date of the agreement that is governed by these Conditions of Sale. Absent explicit written consent from Honeywell, Customer is not permitted to use or disclose Honeywell's Confidential Information in whole or in part to: (a) manufacture itself or enable the manufacture by any third party of Honeywell's products, products similar thereto, or products derived therefrom; (b) decompile, disassemble, decode, reproduce, redesign, or reverse engineer any products or equipment of Honeywell or any part thereof; (c) perform any services, including services relating to Honeywell's products or equipment; or (d) deliver under a contract or make subject to a "rights in data" clause or equivalent clause. a request under U.S. or foreign government regulations to disclose any of Honeywell's Confidential Information. If Honeywell requests, Customer will cooperate in all reasonable respects to contest the disclosure or obtain a protective order or other remedy. Customer may make a limited number of copies of Confidential Information as is necessary for the normal operation of Honeywell's Products. All copies made will reproduce the restrictive legends on the original. Within 180 days after termination or expiration of an agreement and upon written request of Honeywell, Customer will return or destroy all Confidential Information and all copies thereof, except for any Confidential Information that exists only as part of regularly generated electronic backup data or archive data, the destruction of which is not reasonably practicable. The terms and conditions of this "Confidential Information" section will survive expiration or any termination of an agreement.

18. INDEMNITY AGAINST PATENT AND COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Honeywell will defend Customer, its Affiliates and subcontractors against any third-party suit alleging that Customer's use of the Product (as provided by Honeywell) in accordance with these Conditions of Sale, directly infringes any United States third-party patent or copyright, and will pay for any final judgment awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction assessed against Customer resulting from such suit; provided that Customer promptly notifies Honeywell when it is apprised of the claim and provides complete authority, information, and assistance (at Honeywell's expense) as to the defense and disposition via counsel of Honeywell's choice. Honeywell will not be responsible for any compromise, settlement, attorneys' fees, expenses, damages, or costs incurred by Customer without Honeywell's involvement and prior, written consent.

Honeywell will have no liability or obligation to defend and indemnify Customer to the extent FAR 52.227-1 "Authorization and Consent" applies to Customer's prime or higher-tier contract for infringement of a United States patent and Customer is not subject to any actions for claims, damages, losses, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees by a third party.

Honeywell has no obligation or liability for claims arising out of the following: (a) Products made to Customer's designs, drawings, or specifications; (b) use of Products in any process or in any manner not supported by the applicable Documentation; (c) combination or use of any Product with materials not furnished by Honeywell; (d) use of a version of any Software other than the current version; (e) data Customer provides; (f) Customer's use of the outputs of the Product; (g) any alteration, customization, or other modification of the Product other than by Honeywell; or (h) damages based on a theory of liability other than infringement by the Product.

Further, Customer agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the Honeywell Indemnitees harmless against any claim of infringement resulting from those circumstances set forth in subparagraphs (a)-(h) of this Section, as per the Indemnification Procedures of Section 16 (Indemnification).

If a claim of infringement is made for which Honeywell has indemnification obligations or if Honeywell believes that such a claim is likely, Honeywell may, at its sole option and expense, (i) procure for Customer the right to continue using the Product or obtain a license to a reasonable substitute; (ii) replace or modify the Product so that it is non-infringing; or (iii) in the case of Products and Software, require Customer to return the Product (and terminate Customer's license to the Software) in exchange for a credit of the purchase price or license fee, less reasonable depreciation and pro-ration of license fees for Software use. Further, Honeywell may cease shipping Products and Software it believes may be subject to a claim of infringement without being in breach of an agreement governed by these Conditions of Sale.

If the final judgment assessed against Customer is based on the revenue generated from the use of the Product, as opposed to from the sale of the Product by Honeywell to Customer (whether alone or in combination with any article or service not furnished by Honeywell), then Honeywell's liability under this indemnity, exclusive of defense costs, shall be limited to a reasonable royalty based on the contract price paid by Customer to Honeywell for the Product that gave rise to the claim. This Section shall be subject to Honeywell's rights under Section 14 (Limitation of Liability).

THIS PROVISION STATES THE PARTIES' ENTIRE LIABILITY, SOLE RECOURSE, AND THEIR EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES WITH RESPECT TO CLAIMS OF IP INFRINGEMENT. ALL OTHER WARRANTIES AGAINST INFRINGEMENT OF ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, STATUTORY, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR OTHER, ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED.

Except as specifically permitted in these Conditions of Sale, the Licensed Software may not be sublicensed, transferred, or loaned to any other party without Honeywell's prior express written consent.

Unless specifically authorized by Honeywell in writing, Customer is prohibited from making copies of Licensed Software except for backup purposes. Customer will reproduce and include all Honeywell proprietary and copyright notices and other legends both in and on every copy made.

Customer may not directly or indirectly make any effort to deconstruct the Licensed Software provided, including, but not limited to: translating, decompiling, disassembling, reverse assembling, reverse engineering, creating derivative works or compilations, or performing any other operation to obtain any portion of its contents. Customer will take all reasonable actions necessary to prevent unauthorized access, disclosure or use of the Licensed Software provided.

Notwithstanding the warranties provided elsewhere herein, Customer acknowledges that Licensed Software may be product, aircraft, or sensor specific and, as such, may require reasonable adjustment or refinement to suit Customer's specific requirements. Subject to the receipt of adequate written notice and reasonable aid from Customer, Honeywell will make reasonable, commercial efforts to accomplish reasonable adjustments or refinements for up to 90 calendar days after initial delivery of the Licensed Software. This shall not restrict Honeywell's ability to make further adjustments and refinements, at its discretion, to the Licensed Software more than 90 calendar days after initial delivery of the Licensed Software.

Except as expressly granted herein, no license or right, including sublicensing rights, either expressly, implicitly, by estoppel, conduct of the parties, or otherwise, is granted by Honeywell to Customer.
