

Committed to India

Honeywell is a committed partner to India and the country's Make in India policy. Here are some facts about our Swadeshi company you might find surprising:

We have a history spanning more than eight decades in India

Indian domestic sales and exports exceeding Rs 7,000 crore per year

We have 5 engineering and technology development centres supporting Honeywell's businesses around the world

More than 3,000 of our technology products, solutions, and applications have been engineered in India

We have close to 15,000 employees across 50 cities

We have more than 6,000 engineers performing pioneering work on the world's toughest challenges, including the next generation of avionics, navigation and safety systems

Our TPE331 engine is manufactured in India

We have 7 manufacturing facilities

We have been in partnership with Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) for more than 40 years

We signed a landmark technology transfer licensing agreement with TATA Power SED to Make in India our TALIN Inertial Navigation System

Possibilities of Partnership. Made Easy.

Honeywell Aerospace is a committed partner to India. Investing in cutting-edge technology development and engineering centres, manufacturing facilities and our people across the country, we are creating solutions for the challenges faced by the Indian aerospace industry. Made in India, by Indians, for India and the world.

Honeywell is 'Made in India'

To find out more about our activities in India visit www.honeywellforjaguar.com